LITTLE GOBLINS INVITED TO TRICK-OR-TREAT AT ONE COLORADO -- FREE!

OLD PASADENA, Calif., (October 2007) — Bring your little goblins for a happy Halloween of trick-or-treating to One Colorado on Wednesday, October 31 from 4:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. Young ghosts, witches & other creepy critters are invited to go store-to-store for Halloween treats supplied by the shops & restaurants of One Colorado. This trick-or-treating event is timed to appeal to young children (accompanied by adults!) before it gets too late in the evening. Kids will experience a fun atmosphere with hundreds of harvest pumpkins decorating the public Courtyard and pedestrian alleys. Trick-or-treating at One Colorado is free and open to the public.

One Colorado is an outdoor shopping, dining and entertainment district spanning one city block in Old Pasadena. This award-winning destination unites the urban environment of 17 historic buildings with 40 contemporary fashion and dining attractions. The One Colorado Courtyard, designed in the tradition of European town squares, is Old Pasadena's main public space for film festivals, live music, high-quality fine art markets, children's programs and site-specific art installations such as the current "A Colored Square in the Sky" by Daniel Buren.
